A LUNCHEON FUNDRAISER & SILENT AUCTION BENEFITING THE FOUNDATION OF BLIND CHILDREN
& THE DELTA GAMMA FOUNDATION

Dear Community Friends,

On Monday, May 1st, 2017, the Delta Gamma alumnae of Phoenix will be hosting the third-annual Tables That Bloom luncheon fundraiser. All proceeds benefit the local Foundation for Blind Children (FBC), as well as the Delta Gamma Foundation. The area's finest designers will create amazing tablescapes, providing the perfect setting for an elegant luncheon, along with a silent auction and inspiring keynote speaker for all to enjoy. In its first two years, this event raised over $50,000 – and we hope to continue this success!

The silent auction plays a significant role in our fundraising effort. You can help us by donating a tax-deductible item from your organization for the auction. For tax purposes, all donations are made to the Delta Gamma Foundation, a 501(c)3 organization. We are happy to arrange a pick-up of your donation at your place of business. Please contact us at 313-PHX-TTBO (749-8820) or TablesThatBloomPHX@gmail.com to do so.

It is because of the generosity of companies like yours that our local charities continue to thrive and assist the diverse needs of these special individuals in our community. For further information about this event, please visit our website at TablesThatBloomPHX.com.

We thank you in advance for your participation with this worthwhile cause.

Sincerely,
Tables That Bloom Silent Auction Co-Chairs

Dear Sir or Madam:

This is in response to your request for a letter affirming your organization's exempt status.

In June 1953, we issued a determination letter that recognized your organization as exempt from federal income tax under section 101(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 (now section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986). That determination letter is still in effect.

We classified your organization as a publicly supported organization, and not a private foundation, because it is described in sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) of the Code. This classification was based on the assumption that your organization's operations would continue as stated in the application. If your organization's purposes, character, method of operations, or sources of support have changed, please let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on the organization's exempt status and foundation status.

Your organization is required to file Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, only if its gross receipts each year are normally more than $25,000. If a return is required, it must be filed by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of the organization's annual accounting period. The law imposes a penalty of $20 a day, up to a maximum of $10,000, when a return is filed late, unless there is reasonable cause for the delay.

As of January 1, 1984, your organization is liable for taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) on remuneration of $100 or more the organization pays to each of its employees during a calendar year. There is no liability for the tax imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Organizations that are not private foundations are not subject to the excise taxes under Chapter 42 of the Code. However, these organizations are not automatically exempt from other federal excise taxes. If you have any questions about excise, employment, or other federal taxes, please let us know.

Delta Gamma Foundation

Donors may deduct contributions to your organization as provided in section 170 of the Code.

Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to your organization or for its use are deductible for federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

Your organization is not required to file federal income tax returns unless it is subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Code. If your organization is subject to this tax, it must file an income tax return on Form 990-T, Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return. In this letter, we are not determining whether any of your organization's present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in section 513 of the Code.

The law requires you to make your organization's annual return available for public inspection without charge for three years after the due date of the return. If your organization had a copy of its application for recognition of exemption on July 15, 1987, it is also required to make available for public inspection a copy of the exemption application, any supporting documents and the exemption letter to any individual who requests such documents in person or in writing. You can charge only a reasonable fee for reproduction and actual postage costs for the copied materials. The law does not require you to provide copies of public inspection documents that are widely available, such as by posting them on the Internet (World Wide Web). You may be liable for a penalty of $20 a day for each day you do not make these documents available for public inspection (up to a maximum of $10,000 in the case of an annual return).

Because this letter could help resolve any questions about your organization's exempt status and foundation status, you should keep it with the permanent records of the organization.

If you have questions, please call us at the telephone number shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely,

John E. Ricketts, Director, TE/GE
